

BIOGRAPHY

Fronted by Nigerian powerhouse Seun Babatola, backed up by four funky Welshmen, Codewalkers are a vibrant fusion of cultures, ideas and musical styles. Combining rock, rap and reggae into a live show full of energy the band can deal with serious issues lyrically - gender, violence and societal expectations - but their music will always make you move.

The band were chosen for the BBC Horizons scheme for 2019/2020. Other highlights include being chosen as BBC Introducing Wales 'Artist of the Week' and being made Tom Robinson's BBC6Music Mixtape pick of the week.

Codewalkers are a busy gigging band and love bringing their music to life on stage - performing at events such as Merthyr Rising, Truefest, Big Love Festival, St Fagans Food Festival, Hubfest, Oxjam Cardiff, Big Cwtch Festival and more.
